

Jenna M. Roth

10 Bruce St.
Buffalo NY 14214
Cell (716) 472-9265
jennarot@buffalo.edu

Education

BS in Environmental Studies
University at Buffalo – Buffalo, NY
Graduation: May 2018
Honors College member with a 3.6 GPA

Work Experience

NYS Department of Environmental Conservation, Buffalo NY, September 2017-January 2019

- Division of Environmental Permits. Works with Environmental Impact Statements, uses GIS, and performs Environmental Assessment reviews.
- Reviews permit applications, drafts response letters such as “no jurisdiction” and “SEQR” letters. Performs field work when necessary. Works on larger permitting projects that are more technical and require more review.
- Familiar with New York Codes, Rules and Regulations for environmental permitting. Familiar with JAF’s, FEAF’s, SEAF’s and other SEQR compliance.
- Field work, surveying for invasive aquatic species.

Extracurricular Activities

Volunteer with Reinstein Woods Nature Preserve, NYSDEC- Nature preserve volunteer from July 2017- ongoing. Volunteers as a greeter. Answers the phone, greets visitors, answers questions and assists guest with information about the preserve.

Volunteer with Olmsted Parks Conservancy- Greenhouse volunteer from January 2016-April 2017. Works with native plants, transplanting and repotting. Sows seeds.

Service Trip to Chauvin, Louisiana- January 2016, work with locals on sustainable tasks in the wetlands. Classroom time in a marine laboratory. Completed field work working with aquatic species on the Louisiana coast.

Camp Pioneer- Summer 2015 & Summer 2016: Recreational Specialist: Works with youth of all ages and adults outdoors on a paintball course and a high ropes course.

Outdoors – Rock climbing and hiking.

Selected Coursework

- Wildlife Management- Coursework includes management techniques, case studies on currently managed areas and species. Focuses on the different species in our area.
- Field Ecology- Coursework includes field work identifying and learning trees, flowers, etc. by markings. Studies include history of the local environment including the Niagara Gorge and identifying mammalian characteristics.

Other Skills

- Familiar with NYCRR for environmental permits and SEQRA regulations.
- Great communication skills and able to work as an active member on a team.
- A fast learner and able to work on and complete tasks with minimal supervision.
- Good time management skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Proficient in ArcGis.