

Thank you for registering for the 2021 Annual Seminar sponsored by A&WMA-NFS and BAPG. Accelevents is the host for the event and by now you should have received your Invitation/Ticket (ticket) to the event at the email you used to register for the seminar. If you don't see your ticket in your inbox, please check your spam as it may have been directed there.

Your Accelevents ticket is all you need to view the event. Make sure that you verify your account and set up your password. When viewing the invite/ticket, please scroll down near the bottom and click on "View Event Site". This will take you to the Accelevents web page for this event. Once there, please click on the "Agenda" tab near the top. Click on "Enter Event" at the top and follow the directions.

For those of you that are looking for the PDH credits a code will be given at the end of each session. You will need to email this code to Randy Rakoczynski at randyr357@gmail.com and Randy will issue your certificate for the course.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
